

Project-Based Language-Learning
21st Century, Inquiry-based Learning for
Teachers and Students of World Languages
June 12, 13, 14, 15, 2017

Participants will:

- Develop an instructional unit incorporating the eight elements of PBLL, the California World Language Standards, 21st Century Skills, and Common Core Standards, with a focus on target language proficiency development in all three modes of communication, oral and written;
- Understand how to scaffold and manage a project from start to finish;
- Learn how to incorporate technology tools to engage students in their own learning, to scaffold project development and implementation, and to offer students voice and choice.
- Create driving questions for inquiry, learning targets, and rubrics

Targeted Audience: All teachers of World Languages (including American Sign Language), of English Language Learners, and of Heritage Language Learners.

Time: 8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. (Participants will make their own arrangements for lunch.)

Location: Berkeley Language Center, Dwinelle Hall, University of California, Berkeley.

Applications: Attached or available at <http://BWLP.Berkeley.edu>

Application Due June 2, 2017

Cost: $350 per participant

Payment must be received by June 12th, 2017. (See application for details.)

Because our programs are authorized by the State and Federal Government as part of California's effort to ensure that all schools are NCLB compliant, you may wish to use funds from Title I (Disadvantaged Learners), Title II, Part A (Professional Development), or Title III (English Learners).

Program descriptions and applications are posted on the Berkeley World Language Center website at <http://BWLP.Berkeley.edu>
